

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Results and conclusions from the mapping and analysis process

Hosted by:

EUROPEAN UNION

Committee of the Regions

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Anette Tilly

FramtidsFrön Östergötland, Sweden

Jenni Rajahalme

Prizztech Ltd, Finland

Final conference

Brussels 24 October 2012

European Union
European Regional Development Fund

Partners

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Mapping

Partnership: 8 partners

SE, FI, FR, ES, EE, IE, PL, SK

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Method – in three steps

Collection of data

- in each region policy guidelines, strategy documents, legislation

Questionnaires

- sent out to 4 target groups
- common questions
and tailor-made for each region

Interviews target groups

- deepening the questionnaire results

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

4 target groups

Decision makers

Opinion makers

Key stakeholders

Students (16-20 years)

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Responses

Decision makers

- 529 / 1424

Opinion makers

- Ranges from 26 to 321

Key stakeholders

- 308 / 1468

Students (16-20 years)

- 2659 / 3777

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Some results from the mapping

- Regional strategies in almost every partner region
- Some implementation at secondary level and in vocational training
- EE is a big challenge at primary level

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Highlighting some results

Entrepreneurship is more than business

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Entrepreneurship is Responsibility

Decisionmakers
in four of the regions –

The most important ability in entrepreneurship is responsibility

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Conclusions

All target groups except students

- Strategy documents
- Lack of qualified staff
- Lack of funding

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Conclusions

Key stakeholders - teachers and principals

- Lack of time

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Results

Students

- Interest in starting their own business
- Need more guidance from school staff
- Company visits are relatively rare
- Students want to work more with own ideas

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

Interregional report

Read more on our website

www.young-entrepreneurs.eu

Hosted by:

EUROPEAN UNION

Committee of the Regions

YES

Youth
Entrepreneurship
Strategies

THANK YOU!

European Union
European Regional Development Fund